

The Age Distribution of Nobel Laureates

Between 1901 and 2020, 962 individuals and organizations received Nobel Prizes and the Sveriges Riksbank Prize in Economic Sciences in Memory of Alfred Nobel. There are 930 people and 25 organizations that have received the Nobel Prize. Here are the oldest and youngest winners.

The Youngest & the Oldest Winners

76% of the Nobel winners won past the prime age of 71

71 - 100 years old

36 - 70

17 - 35

Oldest winner

For his contributions to creating lithium-ion batteries, John B. Goodenough received the Nobel laureate in chemistry prize. Goodenough is the world's oldest Nobel Laureate, won at the age of 97 in 2019. He is currently 99 years old and still working at The University of Texas at Austin.